Today's Worship Text: Isaiah 35:1-6

"The desert and the parched land will be glad; the wilderness will rejoice and blossom. Like the crocus, it will burst into bloom; it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy. The glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of the Lord, the splendor of our God. Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees that give way; say to those with fearful hearts, 'Be strong, do not fear; your God will come, He will come with vengeance; with divine retribution He will come to save you.' Then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shout for joy. Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert."

We welcome to our pulpit today, Prescott Khair. Prescott comes from the state of Kentucky, where he will be returning as part of the KY/TN Conference once he completes his studies as a seminary student at AU. He has already completed a Bachelors degree in theology at Southern Adventist University and one of his greatest ambitions in life is to visit every country in the world but so far he considers Kentucky to be the promised land. In his down time, Prescott is also a bicyclist, runner and swimmer who strives to keep up with other weekend warriors.
